

INDIGENOUS FAMILY LITERACY FACILITATOR: Job Description

The Lloydminster Learning Council Association
(non-profit organization promoting life-long learning)

Position: Indigenous Family Literacy Facilitator (part-time contract position)

Reports to: Program Coordinator

This position will deliver the Lloydminster Learning Council Association's Rhymes that Bind program tailored to First Nations, Métis and Inuit families in the area. Rhymes That Bind is a 60 minute, six week class that runs three times per year at a community partner location. It uses rhymes, songs and storytelling to instill the joy of learning and development of oral communication skills in children two to four years old.

Key Responsibilities:

- Plan and deliver programs that will make a lasting impression on families
- Attend training opportunities/meetings/presentations
- Refer learners to community resources and supports
- Keep records and complete progress reports (challenges, solutions, successes)
- Set-up and tidy the facility in which the program was held

Requirements and Qualifications:

- Clean Criminal Record Check
- Valid Childcare First Aid Certificate strongly recommended
- Valid driver's license and reliable access to vehicle
- Experience working with First Nations, Métis and Inuit children and families
- Post-Secondary training in Education, Early Learning and Childcare
- Ability to tailor program to the needs of the learners
- Able to create a safe, welcoming and warm environment for learners
